tower defense - fantasy legends tower game

Fantastic game!. The port feels a tad lazy and I wish the Fullscreen VSync stuff wasn't quite so bad, but I think the gameplay really makes up for it. Enjoyed the ♥♥♥♥ out of the first game on my old psp and am thrilled at being able to play it on my pc with controller now.

Edit: So apparently I can no longer bind square on my controller for no reason. Also, why can't I use the d-pad and the analog stick and not just one or the other?. Fun Dungeon Crawl game. Similar to Elder Sign, but with a Progression mechanic that allows for improvements to characters.. Dead game, that's all I log on no games open no one playing it's dead. I really enjoyed the brief tour. The sounds really add to the experience and made the atmosphere great. I really wish to see more exhibitions and more educational games like this in general for Vive. This one will definitely be in my choice of things to show when doing demos of Vive for friends.. Pros:

- dark, thrilling atmosphere
- atmospheric quotes
- interesting storyline
- it's quite fun to play
- it has it's moments

Cons:

- bugs
- dark screen
- too small letters to read
- the more you play, the more monotonous it becomes

If you like horror adventure games then it's worth trying but it's nothing special at all.

Pretty good game. Made it to round 200 something fairly quickly. It does get way harder throughout the rounds, so that's good.. me (spoiler)pinoy(/spoiler) me like. Multiplayer is closed ?. It's got airplanes.. First level is hard. Second level, okay, I somehow got through that level. Third level, WTF. Seriously, what kind of sadistic devs are these? Why did they make this look like a children's game. Fourth level, no way. There's no effing way anybody can get through this. After several deaths and much perserverance, I get to the cheese. Fifth level ... looks at maze ... tries one time, then rage quits.

Okay so maybe rolling rat mode in classic levels is not for me. Let's try board tilt. First level how do you even? No way, rage quit. Pin wheel? Ahhh... finally ... one easy level.

Warning: Don't even try first person view, you can't see anything.

Rating 5/10. I hate my life now.. No. Just no. I bought it on sale for $23.00 and even that felt like I was ripped off. It doesn't feel like a good game at all. Physics are scuffed, graphics seem unfinished, and a majority of the game just feels off. The street racing aspect wasn't terrible, but I found everything else feeling unfinished and a poor attempt at a AAA title. Not worth $23.00, and not even remotely close to being worth $79.99. 2/10
